CHUCKLES from LIFE

Traffic Cop: Don't you know there's no parkin' allowed here? You'll have to wait for your friends around the corner.

At the Club Window

At the window of the club, a man in a small black hat and a woman in a wavy brown dress gazed reflectively into the street. People scurried by—some shopping, some on errands; others whisked past in great automobiles, or strolled idly along. The scene of ever-varying activity, however, wholly failed to move the youthful onlooker in the window, for he was buried deep in retrospection. How different things were in the past! he reflected. And how differently everything was done! Times had certainly altered, and gone were the charm and grace of yesterday. Life had become crude, shoddy, superficial. That air of beauty that once existed was, alas! no more. And he gazed unhappily out of the window. Suddenly his attention was arrested by a little girl who passed for an instant to tie her shoelace. A simple little shop thing I need. A little air, girl. She was dressed in blue. (Copyright, 1927, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Colidge Mandará un Agente Secreto hacia el Oeste.

WASHINGTON, Mayo 3.—Edward W. Starling, agente secreto de la Casa Blanca, saldrá de aquí dentro de un día o dos para inspeccionar las diferentes residencias que se le han ofrecido para que establezca su Casa Blanca veraniega. Se cree que en su viaje hacia el Oeste llegará, por lo menos, hasta Colorado Springs. Los principales factores que influirán en la selección que haga el Presidente Coolidge serán las condiciones climatológicas y la capacidad para acomodar convenientemente todo el séquito que debe acompañar al Presidente. El señor Coolidge espera establecer su domicilio de verano del lado de acá de las montañas Rocallosas, al bien no se difiere que llegue hasta las laderas de dichas montañas.

Se Busca el Mejoramiento del Comercio Internacional

GINEBRA, Mayo 3.—En un informe especial presentado a la Conferencia de Economía Internacional que se reunirá mañana aquí, la Cámara Internacional de Comercio recomienda la creación de un organismo permanente que estudie y trate de resolver los problemas del comercio internacional. Casi todas las naciones del mundo cooperarán a este esfuerzo encaminado a levantar económicamente a Europa, y al mundo en general. En algunos sectores se cree que las barreras arancelarias aumentarán en la medida que se tropieza en la tarea de reconstruir económicamente a Europa.

Terminará en Los Angeles la "Calle Principal" de los Estados Unidos

SPRINGFIELD (Mo.), Mayo 3.—La calzada federal número 66, que irá desde Chicago a Los Angeles, está llamada a ser la "Calle Principal" de los Estados Unidos. Y todos los estados que han de ser atravesados por ella se están preparando para hacer cada uno lo que le toque con el fin de que toda esa distancia esté pavimentada lo primero posible, según se informó hoy aquí en una junta de 300 representantes de departamentos de calzadas provinciales, cámaras de comercio y otros organismos de cinco estados interesados. Los delegados expresaron la opinión de que esa calzada de 2500 millas será pronto una cinta de concreto, que haga posible que se cuente con un camino carretero durante los 365 días del año, a pesar de las inundaciones y de las nieves.

Batalla Nekeana Mortífera Para Ambos Bandos

MEJICO, Mayo 3.—Según informes oficiales facilitados hoy en las oficinas del señor Presidente de la República, tanto los federales como los rebeldes sufrieron fuertes pérdidas en los encuentros habidos en Jalisco, Sonora y Oaxaca. Entre los muertos figuran el general federal Anselmo Armenta y el general yaqui Juan Gómez.

La Ciencia Demuestra que Sonos Fuertes

PITTSBURGH, Mayo 3.—Casi el 80 por ciento de la población se compone de "tuercos," es decir, de personas que usan un ojo más que al otro, según el doctor A. M. Snyder, profesor de psicología de la Universidad de Pittsburgh, quien dirigió unos experimentos en colaboración con John T. Seaton, uno de los instructores de psicología. En las pruebas en que se emplearon como sujetos estudiantes de primer año y de segundo, se descubrió que ochenta y nueve usaban preferentemente el ojo derecho, y treinta y dos el izquierdo, mientras que veinticuatro son indiferentes desde ese punto de vista.

NOTAS LOCALES

Básase Una Mina de Oro en un Solar Urbano

Misterio, curiosidad y suave agitación se cernían ayer alrededor de un solar situado en la esquina de las calles Ord y Spring, Norte, al par que las sombras del pasado eran invocadas, al compás del pico y de la pala, a fin de que revelaran los secretos que se supone han estado escondidos allí durante muchos años. La señora S. E. Ragnir y su hermano Ben T. Lucero son los causantes de toda esa actividad, y tan confidenciales están en el asunto de ella, que han formado una compañía entre ellos mismos y otros miembros de la familia con el fin de llevar a cabo los trabajos y repartirse el botín. La señora Ragnir dijo ayer que durante varias generaciones ha habido en su familia planes que indican la situación de tesoros aquí y en Arizona, pero que hasta hace poco tiempo no había sido posible conseguir el permiso indispensable para hacer las excavaciones necesarias en el solar de la calle de Ord.

La Contestación de Chaplin. Se Apaza

La contestación de Charles Chaplin al escrito presentado por su joven esposa pidiendo el divorcio, no obstante que estaba anunciada para hoy, no se presentará sino hasta que el juzgado decida si alguno de los cargos más sensacionales de la petición han de ser conservados o desechados. Lloyd Wright, abogado personal del cómico, anunció ayer que hoy se presentaría a la corte una contestación a la demanda y una proposición de que se tachasen algunos de los cargos. Los alegatos correspondientes vendrán dentro de una o dos semanas.

DECISION OF RAIL BOARD BRINGS WAR

St. Louis Company Files Injunction Suit Aimed at Ruling on Valuing Lines

ST. LOUIS, Mayo 3. (P)—The recent decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission that railroad valuations should be on the basis of original investment rather than reproduction cost was attacked in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here late today when the St. Louis and O'Fallon Railway Company filed an injunction suit.

The railroad contended that valuation should have been upon a replacement basis, that the income property clause of the Transportation Act is unconstitutional because it provides for confiscation of property without due process of law, and that the commerce commission erred in not considering the St. Louis and O'Fallon as part of a system with the Manufacturers' Railway Company of St. Louis.

The St. Louis and O'Fallon was a test case affecting valuations of all railroads in the country.

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Imperial Valley is preparing to turn its golden harvest of cantaloupes into dollars. For the last several weeks the Southern Pacific has been concentrating thousands of refrigerated cars in the valley in readiness for the movement of this crop, each year the most spectacular task performed by any transportation agency. This year it is estimated by cantaloupe packers that the largest crop in the history of the industry will leave the valley, running about 19,000 cars.

EXCHANGE SEAT SALE TOPIC

Price of $1000 Paid in 1869 by Oldest Living Member of New York Organization Bagatelle

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

(Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, May 3. (Exclusive)—On this day fifty-eight years ago, May 3, 1869, William B. Wadsworth, oldest living member of the New York Stock Exchange, purchased a seat on the floor at a figure that seems pitifully small beside the price of $900,000 for which one sold this week. This 78-year-old veteran of the stock exchange had been a member of a separate body of the brokers known as the government bond department, and along with other members of that same organization, was admitted on payment of a $1000 initiation fee. Even the market price of seats that year swung between a low of $8000 and a high of $7500.

MEXICO APPLIES OIL TAX MONEY ON DEBT

MEXICO CITY, May 3. (Exclusive)—Under an agreement recently made with the oil companies, according to a statement issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, by which petroleum taxes are deposited in dollars in New York instead of in pesos in Mexico City, as heretofore, $81,174,830 has been deposited with the International Bankers Committee in New York for the first payment on Mexico's foreign debt on the April installment. It is announced that the oil companies have agreed to pay the Mexican government $100,000,000 in the form of tax payments in New York, out of which funds Mexico intends to pay interest, payments on the foreign debt, diplomatic and consular fees, and for other purposes.

HAY MARKET STEADY

Receipts Reported Moderate and Demand Generally Slow

Hay markets were practically steady although receipts were generally moderate and demand was slack in most sections during the week ending April 30, according to the weekly hay market review of the United States Department of Agriculture. Flood conditions in the southern areas continued to interrupt transportation. Buying in some southern markets was stimulated by the destruction of hay in the flooded areas. Damage to pasture in the flooded areas had also increased the necessity for feeding requirements.

Business Philosophy

BY WILLIAM FEATHER

I am not one of those who believe the customer is always right. Some customers are crooked, and others have a distorted sense of justice. Dealing with a company that is known to be liberal in making adjustments, they will try to obtain what amounts to a price reduction. No seller should allow a buyer to indulge in sharp practices.

M. A. Hamburger Trips in Boarding Trolley and Receives Severe Bruises

M. A. Hamburger, 60 years of age, prominent owner of Hamburger's department store, was treated at the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon for injuries he received while riding in a street car on Sixth street and Broadway.

According to his brother, D. A. Hamburger, Mr. Hamburger stumbled as he was getting on the car. As he fell his forehead struck the car and he was rendered virtually unconscious. At the Receiving Hospital Police Surgeon Benfey treated him for abrasions and lacerations. When he recovered he was accompanied to his apartment at the Los Angeles Athletic Club by his brother.

Mr. Hamburger is one of three brothers who, with their father, S. A. Hamburger, comprised the department-store company of Hamburger & Sons. The business was sold to the May Company.

Mr. Hamburger still manages the Blackstone Department Store, which the Hamburgers own.

OPENING OF BROADWAY APPROVED

Extension Ordinance to Create New Highway Link Signed by Mayor Cryer

Opening the way for construction of another major highway link that will ultimately lead from the business district of Los Angeles to the sea, Mayor Cryer yesterday signed the ordinance for the opening and extension of Broadway from First street to Forty-first street. The ordinance was passed last week by the City Council on motion of Councilman Orrell.

The completed link will meet what is known as the "Fifteen Avenue" project, known as Broadway, and from that point will eventually be carried by city and county to the ocean, work all the way to the harbor.

The city already has allocated $600,000 toward the improvement, to lighten the burden of property owners in the assessment district.

SIX-CENT RISE IN GAS PRICE

Steep Advance Latest Move in Southland War

Calpet, General, Richfield and Shell at 18 1-2

Standard and Union Ready to Follow Suit

The gasoline war of Southern California broke out again yesterday afternoon when four major oil companies, headed by the California Petroleum Corporation, announced a price increase of 6 cents, from 12 1-2 to 18 1-2 cents a gallon.

In this newest phase which brings reverse English to the consumer's pocketbook, the only company which declined to make any definite statement regarding the increase was the Pan American Petroleum Company. The companies which followed the lead of California Petroleum were the Shell, Richfield and General. Indications from officials of the Standard and Associated companies were that they will raise their prices 6 cents in the next twenty-four hours.

The Union Oil Company, which refused to cut its price from 14 1-2 to 15 1-2 cents in the last decrease, also is expected to raise its rate.

UNSTABLE CONDITION

In connection with the first announcement of a rise, F. C. Van Deine, vice-president of the California Petroleum Corporation, which put its new rate into effect at 3 p. m. yesterday, issued the following statement:

"The public will be aware of the unstable conditions existing in the California oil industry and the present situation, namely, overproduction and price demoralization, is casting a darkening shadow on the whole industrial structure of the Pacific Coast. As a first corrective measure, the prices being placed on an economically sound basis. In a step toward this direction it is necessary that the price be increased."

Full military honors will mark the funeral services of Capt. Walter Brinkop, 41 years of age, former commander of Los Angeles Post No. 8, American Legion, and prominent real-estate operator, at 3 o'clock Friday in Patriotic Hall, 1816 South Figueroa street.

Capt. Brinkop, who was killed in an automobile accident near San Luis Obispo Monday, had been a resident of this city most of his life. He was a member of many civic and fraternal organizations, including the Clarence L. Smith Masonic Lodge. After returning from overseas in 1919 he helped to organize Los Angeles Post No. 8, American Legion, as a charter member. Many of his former comrades who served with him in the Three Hundred and Sixty-fourth Infantry, Ninety-first Division, in France, are expected to attend the military rites. Capt. Brinkop served in many of the "major campaigns," including St. Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne and Trier-Luxemburg. He was gassed several times and wounded once.

Los Angeles in the seventies when there were but 2000 white residents, was pictured by Maj. Frederick R. Burnham, chief of scouts under Lord Roberts in the Boer War, at the monthly meeting of the Historical Society of Southern California last night in the room of the Board of Education in the Chamber of Commerce.

Maj. Burnham was a Western Union messenger boy in his youth and heard the old residents protest against the telegraph company bringing its lines into Los Angeles. Their objection was based upon the argument that the desert sands would rot the poles and there was no demand for the little messages that could be sent over those wires.

New Orleans No Longer in Serious Flood Danger, Engineers Asser

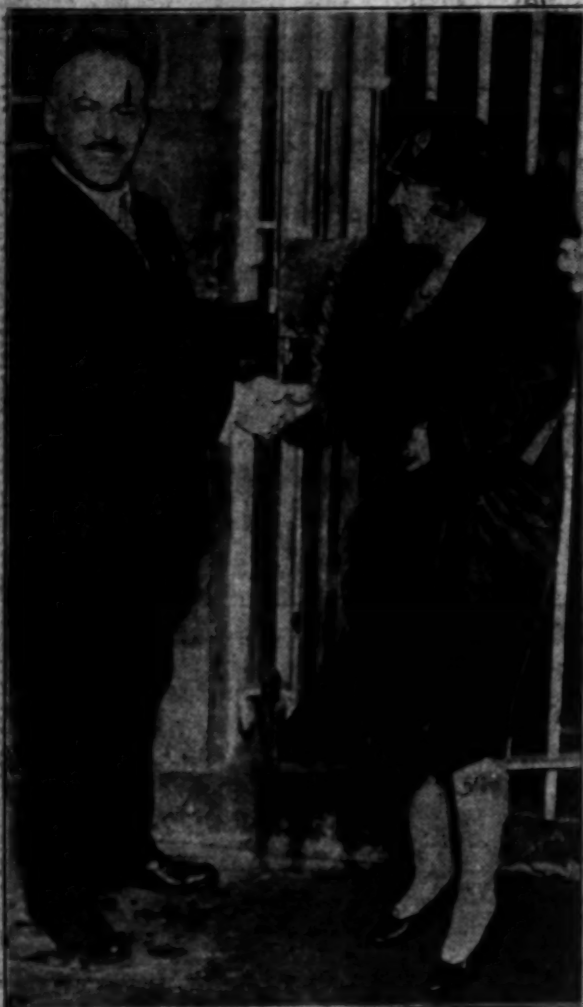

While New Orleans Has Been Saved Apparently From Flood Waters Rolling Down the Mississippi Valley, the crest of the flood is still upstream from the city. A new menace has appeared in the backwater of the deluge released through the dynamiting of the levee at Poydras, La., south of the city. Engineers do not believe the city is longer in any serious danger, although damage to property in sections of its limits will run high. At left (above) is an airplane view of New Orleans, the largest city in Louisiana, and at right, automobiles are shown splashing through waters which have already encroached upon the residential district. (P. & A. photos.)

The Brains Back of the Fight Against Flood, famine and pestilence in Mississippi Valley, are caught by the camera above. At right is Secretary of Commerce Hoover; middle, J. L. Fieser, acting chairman of Red Cross, and left, Maj.-Gen. Jadwin, chief of army engineers. (P. & A. photo.)

So Swift That it is Capable of Accompanying Battle Fleet steaming at full speed, the British submarine X 1, the largest craft of its kind in the world, capable of 120 men and boasts four 5.2-inch guns. The X 1 is shown above recently. (P. & A. photo.)

A Galaxy of Talent Beyond the Hopes of the Management of the Shrine Auditorium benefit performance, to be staged in the Shrine Auditorium on Monday night as a means of raising funds for victims of Mississippi's flood, already been assured. Ethel Meglin's Kiddies, who will take part, are shown above.

Sheridan in the Shenandoah.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

LATE IN JULY, 1864, GRANT SENT GEN. "PHIL" SHERIDAN WITH 45,000 MEN TO DRIVE THE CONFEDERATE ARMY OF JUBAL EARLY FROM THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY. SHERIDAN LEARNED THAT EARLY WAS BEING REINFORCED FROM LEE'S ARMY, AND FELL BACK TO THE POTOMAC. BUT LEE, NEEDING MEN AT PETERSBURG, WITHDREW THE TROOPS HE HAD SENT EARLY, AND SHERIDAN AT ONCE TOOK THE OFFENSIVE.

SHERIDAN, NOW OUTNUMBERING HIS OPPONENT, ADVANCED DETERMINEDLY. ON SEPT. 19TH, 1864, HE DEFEATED EARLY AT WINCHESTER, AND AGAIN ON SEPT. 22ND AT FISHER'S HILL. BOTH SIDES LOSING HEAVILY, EARLY RETREATED SOUTHWARD UP THE VALLEY.

SHERIDAN THEN PROCEEDED TO LAY WASTE THE RICH VALLEY, SO THAT IT COULD NEVER AGAIN BE USED BY THE ENEMY AS A LINE OF ATTACK AGAINST WASHINGTON. THE FEDERALS STRIPPED THE REGION SO THOROUGHLY THAT SHERIDAN SAID, IF A CROW WANTED TO FLY ACROSS THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY, HE WOULD HAVE TO CARRY HIS PROVISIONS WITH HIM.

THE SOUTH CALLED FOR REINFORCEMENTS EARLY, WITH SUPPORTS FROM LEE'S ARMY. AGAIN TOOK THE FIELD. ON OCT. 3RD, AT DAYBREAK, WHILE SHERIDAN WAS ADVANCING, CONFEDERATES SURPRISED THE FEDERALS AT CEDAR CREEK. SOME OF THE CONFEDERATES FLED IN DISORDER. THE 6TH CORPS, HOWEVER, BRAVELY, BUT WAS FORCED TO CALL OFF BEFORE EARLY'S FURIOUS CHARGE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Being Well Dressed on a Limited Income

The all-important feminine question! How to be smartly and irreproachably dressed limited apparel budget. A question that The May Company Fashion Shops are answering to the delight of scores of enthusiastic women. Sketched below are six notable examples of style without extravagance. Our own importations, from Paris, reproductions and adaptations. Surprisingly little price.

Picturesque—intriguing! As irresistibly lovely as a summer rainbow! Quaint basque and bouffant organdy skirt, over chiffon taffeta. The taffeta note repeated in the exaggerated rosette with streamer ends, and in the binding of the scalloped hemline. Exquisite insertions of dyed-to-match lace. Orchid model sketched. Sizes 12 to 20.

Our own importation! Direct from Paris! Unbelievable at this modest pricing. Unmistakable in its Parisian styling. Its simplicity and the exquisiteness of its detail. White flat crepe . . . hand-made, hand-drawn and hand-embroidered! Border design executed in pastel colorings.

Distinctive! Different! Model known as Molyneux "24." Reproduced in flat crepe. White side-pleated skirt — cross-barred black on white jumper. The distinguishing style-note is the smart U shaped front, with white vestee. A black suede belt for accent.

Festive in mood—smart for luncheon or tea—the last word in chic! Exquisite flower-garden designs—exotic colorings! The model sketched uses two-color trimmings and rosettes of grosgrain ribbon. Swathed girdle of self-fabric with side drape. Ribbon bound neck line. Simply smart—and smartly simple! For any occasion where the fashionable foregather.

Typical of the beauty
The Gown Shop's collection of Summer frocks. A production of a late Paris dinner model, in limited beauty. Concealed in the ciel Crepe Roue. Tulle pleated and scalloped detail.
All-over pin tuckings in the Paris manner. The new neckline . . . high draped front. Charmingly individual in character.
